

GENERAL FORMAT AND LITERATURE CITATION GUIDELINES FOR AQUATIC MAMMALS JOURNAL
(Updated 1 December 2012)

---

Text

- A. Font: Times, 10 or 12 point font
- B. Double spacing
- C. British or American English; spellings must be consistent with one version of English throughout the manuscript

II. Headings

- A. A running header should be in italics at the top-center of each page.
- B. This page header summarizes the title in a few words.

III. Pagination

- A. Include page numbers at the bottom-center of each page.
- B. Paragraphs are indented 1 tab, except immediately under a heading or subheading.
- C. Headings and Subheadings
  1. If subheadings are used, there needs to be two or more per section:
    - a. First-level headings are centered, in bold, and the first letter of each important word capitalized (e.g. Abstract, Introduction, etc.)
    - b. Second-level headings are left-aligned, on a separate line, and italicized, with important words capitalized
    - c. Third-level headings are followed by an em-dash (—); the text continues after the heading with no new paragraph with important words capitalized

Results

Age Differences in Food Consumption

Adults—The text continues on this line.

Infants and Juveniles—The text continues on this line.

IV. Tables and Figures

- A. The appropriate position of each table, figure, or photograph should be identified in the body of the text: (e.g., place Table 2 here).
- B. When referring to numbered figures, spell out the reference. Write Figure 1; do not abbreviate as Fig. 1.

C. Tables

1. Format

- a. Tables should be clear and simple.
- b. A single bold line should end the table and any footnotes should appear below this line.
- c. Tables can be landscape or portrait.
- d. Do not use vertical lines or grids in tables, only horizontal lines.

2. Table Legends

- a. A list of table legends may be included on a separate sheet, numbered with Arabic numeral; but a list is not required.
- b. A legend also should appear above each table:
  - i. The word “table” and the number in a legend are in bold (i.e., Table 2.).
  - ii. A bold line should separate the legend and body of the table .
  - iii. Describes the nature of the assembled facts (i.e., who, what, where, when).
  - iv. If the legend is not a complete sentence, it does not end with a period.

D. Figures

1. General Formatting

- a. Figures should be in a suitable computer-generated file (JPEG, TIFF, or PDF)
- b. Each figure, numbered with an Arabic numeral, should be on a separate sheet of paper
- c. Can be landscape or portrait
- d. Design should be simple and compact, leaving out words and numerals that could be mentioned in the captions
- e. The ultimate dimensions of a figure and its caption should not exceed the 202 X 145 mm page format
- f. Lines, lettering, and symbols should be adapted to allow maximal size reduction (so that the letters approximate the size of Times 10 point)

2. Figure Legends

- a. The word “Figure” and the number in the legend are in bold (i.e., Figure 3.)
- b. A list of figure legends may be provided on a separate page; but a list is not required.

- c. A legend should appear underneath each figure, describing the nature of assembled facts (i.e., who, what, where, when)
  - d. If the legend is not a complete sentence, it does not end with a period.
3. Graphs as Figures
- a. Should not have excessive grid lines or tick marks
  - b. Label all axes with proper words and unit(s)
  - c. First words on the X- or Y-axis of a graph should begin with a capital letter
4. Photographs as Figures
- a. Photographs should exhibit strong contrast and sharpness.
  - b. Photos will be printed in black and white unless other arrangements have been made (see c. below).
  - c. Color photographs will only be included in the online and/or hard copy versions of the article after coordination by the author with the managing editor. There is an additional fee for color figures that differs between online and print versions. Contact the managing editor with questions (aquaticmammals@gmail.com).

FORMATTING THE MANUSCRIPT TEXT

Full articles and reports should include Title, Author information, Abstract, Key Words, Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion, Acknowledgments, and Literature Cited

Short Notes should include Title, Author information, Acknowledgments, and Literature Cited

- I. Title
  - A. The first letter of all significant words in the title should be capitalized.
  - B. All words in main title should be in bold.
  - C. Title should be centered, concise, and include the scientific name of any species.

II. Author Information

- A. The first and last names with middle initials of the author(s) should be
  1. Centered below the title.
  2. Separated by a comma with a superscript number(s) following each name with a different affiliation.
- B. Affiliations and addresses should be listed below the author names:
  1. Centered
  2. In italics
  3. Preceded by the corresponding superscript number (if different affiliations)
  4. On separate lines
  5. Include corresponding author e-mail

Two Cases of Physical Interaction Between White-Beaked Dolphins (Lagenorhynchus albirostris) and Juvenile Harbour Porpoises
(Phocoena phocoena) in the Southern North Sea

Jan Haelters<sup>1</sup> and Eligius Everaarts<sup>2</sup>

Mathematical Models (MUMM), 3e en 23e Linieregimentsplein, B-8400 Ostend, Belgium
E-mail: j.haelters@mumm.ac.be*

<sup>2</sup> *SOS Dolphin, Rehabilitation and Research Centre Harderwijk, Postbus 293,
NL-3840 AG Harderwijk, The Netherlands*

Abundance, Distribution, and Group Composition of Indian River
Lagoon Bottlenose Dolphins (Tursiops truncatus)

Wendy Noke Durden,<sup>1</sup> Eric D. Stolen,<sup>2</sup> and Megan K. Stolen<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> *Hubbs-Sea World Research Institute, 3830 South Highway A1A, #4-181, Melbourne Beach, FL 32951, USA

Kennedy Space Center, FL 32899, USA*

III. Abstract

- A. This should be less than 300 words.
- B. Place it after the author affiliations and addresses.

IV. Key Words

- A. A list of 5 to 10 key words should follow the Abstract.
- B. A period does not follow the Key Words.

Abstract

Text here, this paragraph is less than 300 words. An abstract is a brief, comprehensive summary of the contents of the manuscript. It allows readers to survey the contents of an article quickly and, like a title, it enables abstracting and information services to index and retrieve articles. No period follows the key words.

Key Words: energetics, feeding, nutrition, cetacean, reproduction, blue whale, Balaenoptera musculus

STANDARD PRACTICES

I. Sentence Structure

- A. Use the active voice, not passive voice.
- B. Use third person, unless it is important to use first person.
- C. Past tense should be used, unless the statement is always true (e.g. The Earth is round).

II. Capitalization

- A. Names of major taxonomic ranks are capitalized (e.g. class, suborder, order, family).
- B. Only a proper name in a common name is capitalized (i.e., Ross seal).
- C. Taxonomic rank names are not capitalized (i.e., pinnipeds, cetaceans).

III. Italics

- A. Scientific names should be italicized.
- B. Both the common name and scientific names should be given the first time a species is discussed in the manuscript.
- C. Thereafter, either name is appropriate.
- D. Latin words should be in italics: in utero, post hoc, ad libitum, in vivo, a priori, and ca.
- E. The name of a software program should be in italics and the first letter capitalized.
- F. Names of major taxonomic ranks (e.g., class, order, family) are not italicized.
- G. The term (et al.) is not italicized.
- H. Derivatives of taxonomic rank names are not italicized (e.g., pinnipeds, odontocetes).

IV. Numbers

- A. Metric system should be used.
- B. Date format: day month year (23 March 1952)
- C. Time format: military time (0200-1630 h)
- D. Numbers less than 10 should be written out in text, unless they are reporting real measurements or data:
  - 1. Three objectives
  - 2. 6 m of water
- E. Be careful and consistent with the number of significant digits past the decimal point.
- F. Do not use a naked decimal point (e.g., use 0.45, not .45).

V. Other Comments

- A. The word “data” is plural
- B. The word “between” compares two items, whereas “among” compares more than two.
- C. Footnotes should be avoided.
- D. Contractions should be avoided.
- E. Refer to tables and figures in “Methods” or “Results,” not in the Introduction or Discussion.
- F. Do not animate nouns by using verbs with an inanimate object (like “the table suggests” or “the analysis shows”).

VI. Statistical Methods and Values (see Table 1)

Table 1. Statistical Abbreviations and Symbols (based on APA, 2010, pp. 119-123)

| Abbreviation /Symbol | Definition                 |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| ANCOVA                           | Analysis of covariance            |
| ANOVA                            | Analysis of variance (univariate) |
| $\chi^2$                         | Chi-squared                       |
| CI                               | Confidence interval               |
| CV                               | Coefficient of variation          |
| df                        | Degrees of freedom                |

|            |  |
|------------|--|
| $H_0$      | null hypothesis  |
| ln         | Natural log  |
| log        | Common or Briggsian logarithm  |
| $\mu$      | Micro  |
| Mdn | Median   |
| N          | Size of a population   |
| n   | Size of a sample   |
| P          | Probability  |
| p   | probability of a test value (e.g., $p = 0.05$ )                          |
| PCA        | Principle component analysis   |
| r   | Pearson product-moment correlation                                       |
| $r^2$      | Pearson product-moment correlation squared; coefficient of determination |
| R          | Multiple correlation; also composite rank, a significance test           |
| $R^2$      | Multiple correlation squared; measure of strength of relationship        |
| $s^2$      | Variance   |
| SD         | Standard deviation   |
| SE         | Standard error   |
| SS         | Sum of squares   |
| t   | Computed value of t test  |
| T          | Computed value of Wilcoxon's paired-sample test or McCall's test         |

LITERATURE CITATION GUIDELINES

Aquatic Mammals follows American Psychological Association (APA) 6th Edition guidelines. Any exceptions to these rules are annotated by an asterisk (*).

A quick note about EndNote: If you use the computer software EndNote to organize your references, please take the time to confirm that the software is properly formatting your references for APA 6th Edition and the APA 6th Edition exceptions of Aquatic Mammals.

PLEASE NOTE:

Per APA 6th Edition guidelines, all manuscripts with a digital object identifier (DOI) must be cited with their DOI. The general rule for whether a manuscript has a DOI is if the DOI is provided on the first print page of the manuscript. If the DOI is present on the first page, it should be provided in the citation. If the DOI is not present on the first page, Aquatic Mammals does not require it be provided in the citation.

It is the responsibility of the author(s) to provide DOIs with all appropriate literature citations upon submission of the manuscript to Aquatic Mammals.

References we know to have DOIs:

Aquatic Mammals (2004-present)

Marine Mammal Science (2007-present)

---

LITERATURE CITATIONS WITHIN THE MANUSCRIPT

- I. Preferably, references should be excluded from sentences and given in parentheses, commonly at the end of the sentence.
- II. When listing a series of citations in the text, they should appear in chronological order (past to recent); then by first author's last name; then as single, double, or multiple authors.*
  - A. Citations listed in chronological order should be separated by a semicolon.
  - B. Citations by the same author(s) should be separated by a comma.
- III. See Table 2 and the text box below for specific examples.

Since males feed in different areas from females during summer, this could have the effect of reducing intraspecific competition for food. A similar pattern was observed in the highly sexually dimorphic northern elephant seal (Harrison, 1969; Harrison et al., 1972; Kasuya, 1984, 1986, 2006; Perrin & Reilly, 1988; Perrin et al., 1996).

-----

Kaelstein & Smith (1999) also investigated that NE Greenland has limited access to food and wintering area . . . .

Perrin et al. (1996) discovered males feeding. . . .

Table 2. Guide to citations within the manuscript. Modified from APA Publication Manual, 6th Edition (2010).

LITERATURE CITED SECTION

I. Basic Referencing

- A. Bibliographical details should be complete, clear, and easy to survey.
- B. Place entries at the end of the paper.
- C. Order of references in the “Literature Cited” section:
  1. Alphabetical by surname
  2. Order of several works by the same first author:
    - a. Number of authors (one, two, or 3+)
    - b. Arrange in chronological order (past to most recent)
- D. First line of the entry is not indented, all other lines are.
- E. Abbreviations should be avoided, especially with journal titles.
- F. The term “et al.” is not italicized.

II. Use of City Names, States, and Provinces

- A. U.S. cities of publication are listed with state abbreviation.
For example: Upper Saddle River, NJ or Washington, DC.
- B. Province names/abbreviations are not given.
- C. Cities of publication outside of the USA are listed with country name.
For example: Sydney, Australia or Madrid, Spain.

Table 3. General Formatting Rules for the Literature Cited Section

| Source  | Citation  | Comments   |
|---|---|--|
| No Author   | Short title. (2000).   |  |
| 1 Author  | Smith, A. B. (2000).  | Initials for the authors should be separated by one space. Surnames of authors always precede initials in APA.   |
| 2 Authors   | Smith, A. B., & Jones, C. J. (2000).  | Please note the use of commas and ampersand (&).   |
| 3-7 authors                                       | Smith, A. B., Jones, C. J., Walter, E., Thomas, J. A., Dudzinski, K. M., Gregg, J., & Mollman, G. E. (2000).            | List all authors.  |
| 8+ authors  | Smith, A. B., Jones, C. J., Walter, E. M., Thomas, J. A., Dudzinski, K. M., Koppes, K. N., . . . Mollman, G. E. (2000). | List the first 6 authors and then (. . .), followed by the final author surname and initials. This rule is different than APA 5 th Edition. |
| Multiple works by same author(s) in the same year | Smith, A. B. (2000a).Smith, A. B. (2000b).  |  |
| Corporate Acronym                                 | Marine Mammal Commission [MMC]. (1996).   |  |
| In Press  | Smith, A. B. (in press).  |  |
| Personal communication                            | Personal communications are not in the literature cited.  |  |
| No Date   | Smith, A. B. (n.d.).  |  |

→ Pay close attention to the use of periods, commas, and ampersands (&) when formatting references.

PERIODICAL ARTICLES

This section shows how to prepare an entry for an article in a journal, a magazine, or a newspaper. You may need to refer to “Basic Referencing.” Journal name and volume numbers are italicized, but not issue numbers nor page numbers.

Article in a Journal Paginated by Volume (page numbers are continuous within a volume; e.g. Issue 2 does not begin at p. 1 but at p. 200). Most periodicals cited by marine mammal scientists tend to be formatted this way.

Highfill, L. E., & Kuczaj II, S. A. (2007). Do bottlenose dolphins (Tursiops truncatus) have distinct and stable personalities? Aquatic Mammals, 33(3), 390-389. doi: 10.1578/AM.33.3.2007.380

→ There is only one space between pieces of information in APA citations.

Article in a Journal Paginated by Issue (New issues begin at page 1)

→ Do not abbreviate page numbers, e.g. (pp. 12-5) should be (pp. 12-15).

In-Press Article

Self-Sullivan, C. (in press). Seasonal occurrence of male Antillean manatees (Trichechus manatus manatus) on the Belize Barrier Reef. Aquatic Mammals.

REFERENCING A BOOK

In addition to consulting the items in this section, you may need to refer to “Basic Referencing” on page 10.

Entire Book, Print Edition

Dierauf, L., & Gulland, F. M. D. (Eds.). (2001). CRC handbook of marine mammal medicine (2nd ed.). Boca Raton, FL: CRC Press.

→ Capital letter (Ed.) refers to an editor, lower case (ed.) refers to an edition.

Article or Chapter in an Edited Book

Rowles, T. K., van Dolah, F. M., & Hohn, A. A. (2001). Gross necropsy and specimen collection protocols. In L. Dierauf & F. M. D. Gulland (Eds.), CRC handbook of marine mammal medicine (2nd ed., pp. 449-470). Boca Raton, FL: CRC Press.

→ Note that initials for editors come before their surnames, and initials for authors come after their surnames.

Edition Other than the First

Sokal, R. R., & Smith, F. J. (1981). Cetaceans today: Problem solving (2nd ed.). San Francisco: W. H. Freeman & Company.

→ Capitalize only the first word of a book title, unless it is a proper noun or is the first word that follows a colon.

Multivolume Work

Author, A. A. (1973). Giant book of dolphin facts, Tursiops truncatus (Vols. 1-4). Washington, DC: Smithsonian Institution Press.

Single Volume Work

ELECTRONIC SOURCES

When citing online articles, follow “Basic Referencing” rules and give whatever information is available in the online source. If the article also appears in a printed journal, a URL is not required; instead, include “Electronic Version” in brackets after the title of the article. If there is no print version, include the date source and the article’s URL.
